

Nandong of Smong

Enggelan mon sao surito (hear a story)

Inang maso semonan (once upon a time)

Manoknop sao fano (drowned a village)

Uwilah da sesewan (that's how it told)

Unen ne alek linon (preceded by an earthquake)

Fesang bakat ne mali (followed by big waves)

Manoknop sao hampong (sink all over the country)

Tibo-tibo maawi (and suddenly)

Anga linon ne mali (if the earthquake is strong)

Uek suruik sahuli (followed by receding water)

Maheya mihawali (after that looking for a place)

Fano me senga tenggi (plateau in order to survive)

Ede smong kahanne (that is smong the name)

Turiang da nenekta (the history of our ancestors)

Miredem teher ere (remember of this event)

Pesan navi-navi da (it's message and advice)

Smong dumek-dumek mo (tsunami your bath water)

Linon uwak-uwakmo (earthquake your swing)

Elaik keudang-keudang mo (lightning as your drum)

Kilek suluhih-suluhih mo (your lightning light)

